

Wanda Lasseter Lundy Biography

Wanda Lasseter Lundy is a gifted intuitive healer, mentor and teacher. Working first as part-time psychic for about 10 years, she performed tens of thousands of psychic readings. As an intuitive healer, she has performed over 25,000 intuitive healing sessions for clients on 5 continents and 30 US states either in person or on the telephone. She has taught over 530 classes to students on topics and skills related to the use of intuition in healing, metaphysics and spirituality. Wanda has trained numerous apprentices and mentored hundreds of other healing practitioners. As the Senior Lead Minister of Rays of Healing Church, she has ordained 26 healing ministers.

Wanda can see, hear, feel and sense a person's energy and decipher the meaning behind it. Whether a person is in her presence or at a great distance, she can describe their energy system, how it works, and the patterns of flow and connection. She sees the blockages to energy flow, knowing why each exists, the meaning behind it, and how it relates to every other part of the person - their body, mind, emotions and soul.

She reads the emotional and mental patterns that contribute to physical illnesses and connects these patterns to the areas of the body that are affected or to the life struggles that the person is experiencing. She can tell a person how they feel and why they feel that way, and she can describe it to them in great depth simply by tuning into their energy.

Wanda can read a person's energy and reveal patterns of the soul's progression.
